

Remember the delicious aroma of Grandma’s gingerbread cookies still hot from the oven or the sinfully sweet scent of sugary vanilla frosting? Close your eyes, take a deep breath, and prepare to take a trip down memory lane as you inhale the tantalizing aromas of our natural soy candles.

So what’s your pleasure? Are you craving the ultimate spa experience? Then try Lime Cooler, an invigorating blend of tart lime, refreshing orange and crisp apple. Or perhaps you’d like to set the scene for a romantic lovefest with Lavender Vanilla. Whatever your mood, we offer a variety of appetizing and long-lasting candle scents that are sure to capture your affection.

The Story Behind Our Company

After launching a handcrafted jewelry collection of stylish, one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces in 2006, the concept for Butterfly Effects soy candles first came to its founder Tylesha Dobson after airing out her home studio on a summer day in 2008. As the room filled with warm sunshine, she began to reminisce about her most cherished childhood memories of scented summer breezes infused with hints of fresh-cut grass and sweet flowers. Inspired by a vision of recreating the sweet aromas of happy childhood moments, Butterfly Effects, LLC was born.

Why Buy Butterfly Effects Candles?

At Butterfly Effects, we create a specialized experience for our customers offering some of the most unique scent selections you’ll find online. Our candles contain lead-free cotton wicks and all-natural soy wax to create a healthier environment for you and your family.

Guaranteed Customer Satisfaction

We hold the products we sell to a high standard. In fact, we guarantee customer satisfaction. If your candle doesn’t burn all the way through, we’ll replace it at no extra cost. Because we strive to provide our customers with a greater value for their consumer dollars, we are continuously seeking to expand our selection of unique and meaningful products.

Style Meets Affordability

Butterfly Effects’ candle creations are handcrafted and encased in a beautiful clear glass tumbler – adding a touch of sophistication to any room. Designed to accommodate even the smallest budget, our soy candles offer exceptional value with a burn time of 40 hours for our smaller jars and more than a 100 hours for our larger containers.

Socially and Environmentally Responsible

Every time you purchase one of our natural soy candles, you support American farmers and put money back into the U.S. economy. We are constantly seeking new ways to create a more sustainable company. In addition to offering eco-conscious products, we aim to be a zero-waste company. Therefore, we use only recycled materials in our packaging.
